Chapter 1 by -

This is, as you would say, my last words. Life, the harsh cruel game can now, finally, come to an end. Round after round is always the same misery and pain. Though this is not my story, I might have been thrown in the mix due to some misfortune but this is her story. She was one of those rare beauties, she was the light to my darkness. Her name was Catabella. She showed me the light and in return I drowned her in darkness. That night, the night her light was put out forever still haunts me. I should have joined her that night, at least then she wouldn't have had to drown alone, but no, she was alone and i have suffered with that knowledge for years. At the time I could only hope that my suffering could make amends for her tragic end just as i hope that sharing her story could help share her light even after death. my name is Alex, and im the monster that robbed the world of her beauty.

Chapter 2 by George Langham

It was undeserved beauty anyway. The world is a shameless heartless whore dressed in glamour.
